

River City Roadrunners
Chapter

Medical and Legal Aspects of Traumatic Strangulation and Trial Preparation Course

TOPIC OUTLINE:

- Medical Aspect of Strangulation
- Community and Collaborative Relationships
- Legal Aspects of Strangulation
- Strangulation Assessment: History and Physical Exam

Participants will learn how to identify injuries including the possibility of internal injuries that require prompt recognition and intervention.

Legal definitions and implications surrounding strangulation are discussed, along with the need for accurate documentation, investigation practices, and legal proceedings.

Strangulation cases often require a multidisciplinary approach involving healthcare professionals, law enforcement, and legal experts.

LOCATION, DATE, & TIME

Ivy Tech Community College Evansville
3501 North First Avenue
Evansville, IN, 47710

March 1, 2024
0800-1645 (8:00 a.m. - 4:45 p.m.) Central Time

AUDIENCE

Emergency nurses, EMS, law enforcement personnel, advocates, victim assistants, social workers, and attorneys are encouraged to participate in this course.

COMMUNITY PARTNERS

This course is a joint venture between many community partners, including the local chapter of the Emergency Nurses Association, Ivy Tech Community College Evansville, Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence, Holly's House, Albion Fellows Bacon Center, several county prosecutors, EMS services, law enforcement, and others.

REGISTER NOW

<https://www.indianaena.org/emergency-education>

6.75 Indiana Continuing Legal Education (CLE) and ANCC contact hours have been submitted for attorneys, law enforcement personnel, nurses, and others.

Registration is now available.

